

Brand new style “Election Festival” on 14th July in Shibuya

Greens Japan (co-representative, Nao Suguro) fields 10 candidates for the Upper House election. The voting day will be 21st July. One of our candidates Yohei Miyake is challenging for this election with his unique and brand new style called “Election Festival” like summer music festival. He makes political speech with high quality music and young people love this!

He keeps his usual style as a musician and utilizes his network. His professional friends like musicians, designers, owners of live houses around Japan are supporting Miyake’s Election Festival and now taking place more than 20 places from Hokkaido to Okinawa.

His main aim is to mobilize more younger generation (20~30’s) to the polling station because voting rate of this generation is too low like 35~45% compare to other generation. And if we could increase their voting rate, the result of the election will change dramatically.
